Re: In re: New York City Policing During Summer 2020 Demonstrations
No. 20-CV-8924 (CM) (GWG)
This Motion Relates to Sierra v. City of New York, 20 CV 10291(CM)(GWG)

Your Honor:

I am one of the counsel for plaintiffs in the Sierra matter. By an Order dated May 19, 2022, Your Honor directed that “[t]he parties shall provide to the PBA by June 3, 2022: (1) a copy of all discovery requests that party has made; and (2) a copy of all discovery responses that party has provided through that date.” (Dkt. 547.) We write to respectfully request that the Sierra plaintiffs’ obligation to produce discovery requests and responses pursuant to this Order be stayed indefinitely. We also request that the City defendants be directed not to produce Sierra discovery to the PBA, unless permitted to do so by further order of the Court.

On May 20, 2022, the Sierra plaintiffs served on defendants a proposed stipulation to voluntarily dismiss their claim for declaratory relief. Despite repeated requests to defendants to either sign the stipulation, or make known any objections to it, defendants have not done so. Therefore, plaintiffs are preparing a motion to amend the complaint to delete the request for declaratory relief.

The Second Circuit decision that granted intervenor status to the PBA was grounded in the union’s interest in several of the Consolidated Cases’ claims for injunctive and declaratory relief. In Re New York City Policing During Summer 2020 Demonstrations, 21-1316 (2d Cir. March 4, 2022). Since the Sierra First Amended Complaint contains a claim for declaratory relief, the PBA was granted intervenor status in Sierra. However, if plaintiffs’ request for declaratory relief is deleted from the complaint, no grounds will exist to support the PBA’s intervention in the case, since at that point the Sierra case will be an action that seeks only damages (id. at p. 20, n.4).

In light of plaintiffs’ intention to move to amend their complaint to delete the request for declaratory relief, and the high likelihood that it will be granted, the Sierra plaintiffs respectfully request that they be relieved of their obligation to comply with the May 19, 2022 Order, and that the defendants be directed to not produce Sierra discovery requests or responses to the PBA.

Respectfully submitted,
